

TITLE: Showing Up for Trans and Nonbinary Students

PRESENTER: Gia Cordova and Ian Anderson

DESCRIPTION: Every person on every campus can find their role in making schools safer and more welcoming to all students, including LGBTQ students. Presented by Transgender Law Center legal and organizing staff, this session will talk through the educational, social and individual needs of transgender and nonbinary students. Presenters will also offer ways adult allies (admin, counseling staff, teachers) can use their positional power to show up for trans students and shift campus climate.
