

Bonnie Robbins is a School Counselor at Whittier Middle School in Poland, Maine. She is also an Adjunct Professor in the counseling department at the University of Southern Maine. She is a leader in the school counseling profession. She has served on her state board for several years in a capacity of roles, including Presidency, and has also served on the ASCA Board of Directors. Bonnie has presented at a number of conferences around the country on Restorative Practices and has trained many schools. Bonnie coaches middle school cross country and high school track. She enjoys running, spending time outside, traveling and spending time with her family and friends.

Shawn Vincent has served as principal at Bruce M. Whittier Middle School since 2012 and been an administrator in the district since 2006. Prior to becoming an administrator, he taught middle school English language arts in Wilmington, Massachusetts and then at Whittier Middle. Shawn is a member of the Educational Leadership Advisory Council at the University of Southern Maine. He holds a M. ED. In Educational Leadership from USM and a B.S. in Middle School Education and English Language and Literature from Gordon College in Wenham, Massachusetts. Shawn regularly plays the role of wingman for Bonnie Robbins' presentations on Restorative Practices. He enjoys spending time outside with his wife and four children. Shawn is a runner and enjoys volunteering as a basketball and softball coach.