

TITLE: Working with American Indian Students

PRESENTER: Dr. Anitra Warrior

DESCRIPTION: The session will describe the unique culture and within group differences of American Indian Students and how professionals can improve relationship building with these students. This session will also discuss current nation-wide disparities experienced by American Indian youth and adolescents.